Thursday, 5th November 10am – 7pm

The General Trading Company

2–6 Symons Street, Sloane Square, London, SW3 2GT

An opportunity to view and purchase British crafts created by QEST Scholars. Many are already recognised as outstanding in their field, whilst others are on the brink of success.

The Queen Elizabeth Scholarship Trust awards scholarships of up to £15,000 to people with exceptional talent so that they are able to advance their skills and understanding of their craft through further training. Since 1990, 208 Scholars have received more than £1.35 million.

QEST is the charitable branch of The Royal Warrant Holders Association
